History of the Episcopal Church of Liberia Since 1980: A Sequel

D. Elwood Dunn

“The main characters in the book namely Bishop Browne, Bishop Neufville, and Bishop Hart, are people that I knew personally not only as my colleagues; but as people who had a longstanding relationship in the ministry as theologians who were recruited, trained and positioned to take over the leadership of the Liberian church from US missionaries. This book is not only a reservoir of the history of the Christian church in Liberia; it is also a pathway through which incoming leaders will be motivated to place more emphasis on the role of the church for future generations. I therefore recommend it as a must read for present day theologians, those in training, as well as those in current positions of administration in the Church.”— Bishop Arthur F. Kulah, Bishop Liberia Annual Conference, United Methodist Church 1980-2000

ABOUT THIS BOOK

This book provides a window on the Episcopal Church of Liberia and its Christian witness through the lenses of three bishops who have led the Church since 1980. This is done in the critical context of the experience of the Liberian people since the 1980 coup and the civil war of 1989–2003.
